

Lockerbie Academy

Learning@Home

Activities – S1-3

Year group

S1

S2

S3

Subject/Teacher

Modern Studies

Online activities

Have a look at different newspapers and news providers on-line – including the Guardian, The Independent and/or the BBC News website. Try to gather as many examples as you can on the types of crime people are committing. Keep notes on what the crime was committed, where it was committed and what punishment the perpetrator was given. Also think about and take notes on why this crime might have taken place, what do you think has motivated the perpetrator to commit this crime? What about the impact on the victim. Make notes on what you think the impact of this crime might have had on the victim as well as the victims families.

Alternative activities

If you can watch the news or have a read through a local or national newspaper. Try to gather as many examples as you can on the types of crime people are committing. Keep notes on what the crime was committed, where it was committed and what punishment the perpetrator was given. Also think about and take notes on why this crime might have taken place, what do you think has motivated the perpetrator to commit this crime? What about the impact on the victim. Make notes on what you think the impact of this crime might have had on the victim as well as the victims families.