Alternative activities

Read every day. Read anything you are interested in and try to get outside in the fresh air to read too. If you finish reading something, write a quick note about what you enjoyed/didn't enjoy about it.

Write a diary entry at least three times a week (if not every day). Remember to describe instead of state what you did, etc. You should also include your thoughts and feelings.

Use the information you gathered for your group discussion to write a persuasive speech.

Here is the success criteria for your level:

- To structure a talk, I can
- select ideas and relevant information
- organise essential information or ideas in a logical order
- use suitable vocabulary to communicate effectively with my audience
- To help me develop an informed view, I can use some of the techniques (emotion, bias, statistics, exaggeration, rhetorical questions...) used to influence or persuade

This can be typed up and submitted (to be delivered at a later stage) or you can record yourself delivering your speech. It should be about 3 minutes long.
